DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the request for continued examination (RCE) of 30 October 2007.
2. The reissue oath/declaration filed with this application is defective (see 37 CFR 1.175 and MPEP § 1414) because of the following: The reissue oath/declaration filed with this application is defective because it fails to identify at least one error which is relied upon to support the reissue application. See 37 CFR 1.175(a)(1) and MPEP Section 1414. Applicant has submitted copies of the reissue declaration from the parent reissue application. This declaration is no longer applicable to the errors that are being corrected in this divisional. While the specific errors listed were corrected in the divisional, other errors are now being addressed in this application. Applicant needs to specify the errors that are now being corrected. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.175(b)(1), a supplemental reissue oath/declaration under 37 CFR 1.175(b)(1) must be received before this reissue application can be allowed.
3. Claims 46-67 are rejected as being based upon a defective reissue declaration under 35 U.S.C. 251. See 37 CFR 1.175. The nature of the defect is set forth above.
4. Claims 46-67 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. There is no enabling disclosure in U.S. patent No. 5,656,186 of laser ablation of the genus of all organic material, but instead only an single example of cornea tissue.

Enablement for a single species of a genus does not enable the entire genus in a art area that is unpredictable. Furthermore regarding claim 62, there is no disclosure in U.S. patent No. 5,656,186 of scanning the laser beam underneath the surface.

5. While no prior art is being applied against the claims in this office action, please note that rejections similar to that in 09/775,106 may be necessary in the event that the word "organic" is deleted from the independent claims. The claims are all considered allowable over the prior art of record but subject to the rejection under 35 USC 112, first paragraph, above.
